

Call for Application

Student Panel Discussion

Join Conversation at IASAS Global Summit 2024 in South Korea: Student Panel on Diversity and Inclusion!

In an era of global interconnectedness, the significance of diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging (DEIB) is increasingly recognized worldwide, particularly in dynamic educational hubs like South Korea. As the country embraces these transformative values, the 2024 International Association of Student Affairs and Services (IASAS) Global Summit provides a perfect platform for student voices to be heard.

As South Korea continues to integrate global DEIB standards into its educational institutions, your insights at the IASAS Global Summit will contribute to a deeper understanding and help foster a more inclusive academic environment globally. We encourage passionate students in South Korea to apply and play a pivotal role in this essential dialogue.

- ✓ Date and Location: 11:00~12:00, May 23, 2024 | EXCO, Daegu, South Korea
- ✓ Theme: Discussing DEIB within the South Korean educational context and its global implications through the lens of students' lived experiences.

The student panel session will be led by the student affairs scholars and professional practitioners. The theme will be discussed in the context of DEIB in the South Korean context, ultimately leading to draw a global picture of social justice and the SDGs. The participants will also be asked two to three questions to share their college student experiences connected to the theme above.

- ◆ Eligibility: Current students at South Korean colleges or universities who are comfortable sharing their campus experiences from a DEIB perspective in English.
- ◆ How to Apply: click HERE (Deadline: May 5, 2024)
 Applications will be reviewed by the IASAS, and the selected students will be contacted individually for detailed guidelines and a virtual orientation session in mid-May.*
 A Certificate of Attendance will be awarded; costs associated with travel and accommodation will be covered by the Organizing Committee.*
- ◆ For more information about the 2024 IASAS Global Summit, please visit <https://www.iasas.global/globalsummit2024> or contact us at enquiries@iasas.global

The 2024 IASAS Global Summit is proud to have the Korea Student Aid Foundation as a co-organizer.

